Dear Ms Graham,

I noticed your advertisement for the position of Java Developer and think I would make an excellent candidate for it. If you are looking for a Sun Certified Java Developer who will go the extra mile to get things done, then I am your man. There is nothing I cannot or will not do to ensure that your business is a success.

For the last two years I have been working in a similar role to the one you are advertising, and have been responsible for designing, building, testing and supporting Java applications. Being a key member of my existing team means that I have been put in charge of providing coding and analysis relative to assignments, and performing unit testing on applicable code. I have extensive experience of Java (Core), JavaScript, Java web development, Java/J2EE code, Oracle SQL, HTML, XML and Eclipse. I consider myself an expert at resolving application defects, and at testing, debugging, and refining software to produce the required product.

On a personal level I have the ability to stay organized and on top of my work at all times. In addition to this I am constantly seeking to improve my skills and am fully aware of the latest developments in the world of Java.

Right now I would like to work for a company like yours that has an environment geared towards performance, provides attractive career opportunities, and has an open corporate culture that values and rewards the contributions of its staff.

I enclose a copy of my CV and hope that you will look favourably upon my application. Thank you for your time, consideration and forthcoming response.

Yours sincerely,
